Tour Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Port Blair

- Upon arrival at Veer Savarkar International Airport in Port Blair, you will be greeted by our representative and transferred to your hotel. Take some time to relax and freshen up.
- In the afternoon, visit Cellular Jail, a historical landmark that served as a colonial prison during India's struggle for independence. Explore the museum inside the jail complex, which vividly narrates the harsh realities faced by prisoners through exhibits and displays. Attend the poignant Light and Sound Show in the evening, which takes you through the heroic saga of the Indian freedom struggle.
- Later, head to Corbyn's Cove Beach, a serene spot with soft sands and coconut palms lining the shore. You can indulge in water sports like jet skiing, banana boat rides, or simply relax and enjoy the picturesque sunset over the Bay of Bengal.

Day 2: Port Blair

- After breakfast at your hotel, embark on a visit to Ross Island. Once the administrative headquarters of the British, now in ruins reclaimed by nature, Ross Island offers a glimpse into its colonial past. Explore the remnants of the Chief Commissioner's House, church, and other buildings entwined with roots and vines. Encounter deer and peacocks that roam freely across the island's lush landscape.
- Next, proceed to North Bay Island, known for its vibrant coral reefs and abundant marine life. Board a glass-bottom boat to observe the underwater world without getting wet. If you're adventurous, snorkel or scuba dive to explore the diverse coral formations and colorful fish inhabiting these waters.

Day 3: Port Blair

- Start your day with a delicious breakfast at the hotel.
- Visit the Anthropological Museum, where you'll gain insights into the indigenous tribes of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. The museum showcases tools, artifacts, photographs, and models depicting the lifestyle, culture, and traditions of tribes like Jarawa, Onge, and Sentinalese. It's a fascinating exploration of the islands' rich anthropological heritage.
- Conclude your tour with a visit to the Samudrika Naval Marine Museum, operated by the Indian Navy. Here, you can marvel at a diverse collection of marine life specimens, including corals, shells, and fish species found in the Andaman Sea. Gain knowledge about the islands' maritime history through informative exhibits and displays of naval artifacts.
